NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER

If bills are not paid in full for the labor, professional services, materials, machinery, fixtures or tools furnished, or to be furnished, a mechanic's lien leading to the loss, through court foreclosure proceedings, of all or part of your property being improved may be placed against the property. You may wish to protect yourself against this consequence by either:

1. Requiring your contractor to furnish a waiver and release signed by the person or firm giving you this notice before you make payment to your contractor.
2. Requiring the person giving you this notice a release of the subject notice of intent to perform as prescribed by KSA 60-1103(b)
3. Using any other method or device that is appropriate under the circumstances.

Within ten days of the receipt of this Notice of Intent to Perform the owner or other interested party is required to furnish all information necessary to correct any inaccuracies in the notice or potentially lose as a defense any inaccuracy of that information.

Within ten days of the receipt of this Notice of Intent to Perform if any payment bond has been recorded the owner must provide a copy of the payment bond including the name and address of the surety company and bonding agent providing the payment bond to the person who has given the preliminary twenty day notice. In the event that the owner or other interested party fails to provide the bond information within that ten day period, the claimant shall retain lien rights to the extent precluded or prejudiced from asserting a claim against the bond as a result of not timely receiving the bond information.
